- 1) Introduction
- 2) Childhood
- 3) Family
- 4) Social
- 5) Academic Goals
- 6) Career Goals
- 7) Skills, talents, hobbies, and interests
- 8) Other; Feel free to include any sensitive issues; such as subjects like gender, religion, political, race and nationality, social status, sexuality, mental disorders, disabilities, and challenges in your life. You are not required to include any information you feel uncomfortable with.
- 9) Event that considerably influenced your life
- 10) Animal Comparison
Compare yourself with an animal. For example, do you associate yourself with a tiger as you are a strong and determined person.

Your essay should follow these instructions.

- Do not use a title page. The first page should include the title of the paper, date, your name, course name and Instructor's name centered at the top.
- 12 point Times New Roman type-written, double-spaced with 1" page margins.
- Page numbers are flush right at the top of the page.
- Minimum of 3 pages.
- Stapled in upper, left-hand corner .
- The 10 sections must be labeled or the paper will receive a grade of 0.
- Grading will be based on the extent that you follow the instructions, include as much information as possible, and go into detail and elaborate when necessary. The paper will be graded and returned to you. Grading will not include how the instructor feels about any content, such as political views, etc. and if the instructor agrees with your content.
