Soc 1 Term Paper Requirements

Following are errors in the Term Paper Instructions that result in a lower grade.

APA style is not used

APA Style
The page header contains the title of the paper and is flush left.
The page number is flush right at the top of the page.

All citations (quoting from a work) use the author, year of publication, and the page number for the reference (preceded by "p.").
Example; According to Smith (2000), "Students had some difficulty using APA style" (p.199).

An example of citing a reference from a book using APA style follows;

No or incorrect Title Page. Title page must include the title of the paper, name, course, date and Instructor name.

There is no reference page or the reference page is not separate.

All References are included in the text of the paper and all citations in the text of the paper are included in the Reference page.

The paper has excessive spelling and grammatical errors.

The paper has incorrect logic or assumptions not supported by research.